Description

4 Ash Road is a handsome red brick terraced house in a great position within this popular residential cul de sac within the parish of Rodborough. This area enjoys a thriving, inclusive community, with shops and schools within easy reach and hundreds of acres of National Trust land found just up the hill at Minchinhampton, Rodborough common and Selsley Common. The property is built using traditional methods from red brick under a pitched slate roof. It has clearly been a happy, comfortable home.

The accommodation is arranged over three floors. The entrance opens into the sitting/dining room, which features engineered oak flooring, an enclosed wood burner and a window overlooking the front aspect. From here, the room flows into the kitchen, fitted with a modern range of wall and base units and a sink thoughtfully positioned with views over the rear garden. The kitchen leads on to a utility area, with a door providing access to the garden, as well as the family shower room. Stairs from the sitting room rise to the first floor, where there are two bedrooms. A further staircase from the landing leads to the second floor, where you'll find a third bedroom with eaves storage and a Velux window looking up the hill.

Outside

The property enjoys mature, well-maintained gardens to both the front and rear. The rear garden features well-stocked borders, a lawn, shed, wood store and a charming seating area. The property also benefits from a right of access across 2 and 3 Ash Road.

Location

Ash Road is a friendly street with a strong community feel.
