Set in an elevated position within the beautiful village of Cottered, Haymead End is a substantial family home that offers both peace and convenience. Just two miles from the bustling market town of Buntingford, with its array of local amenities and excellent schooling options, this property truly needs to be seen to be appreciated.

Inside, you'll find four generous reception rooms and a stunning kitchen with a separate utility room, providing ample space for a growing family. The principal bedroom, located on the first floor, is a standout feature with its dedicated dressing area and a large en-suite bathroom, offering a luxurious retreat. Three further double bedrooms and a well-appointed family bathroom complete the upper level, making this a perfect family home for years to come.

Accessed by a quiet lane in the heart of the village, Haymead End is just a short stroll from the charming village pub. The property enjoys spectacular views over the rolling Hertfordshire countryside, both at the front and rear, offering an idyllic setting for those who appreciate the beauty of rural life.
