Once part of the neighbouring Manor House, this former coach house and stables date back to the late 1800's. It was then converted about twenty five years ago into six individual homes surrounding a pretty inner courtyard, and we are delighted to offer for sale one of these rarely available Grade II Listed character cottages, located in a peaceful and quiet rural spot. This charming property is steeped in character and has a beautiful good size garden, garage, off road parking and offering versatile accommodation, it would make the perfect family home, holiday home, retirement or starter home. The property enjoys an enviable position within the development and affords uninterrupted and far reaching views from both the house and its garden.

The cottage exudes character and charm, with its attractive red brick façade and well-crafted detailing around the doors and windows. The welcoming entrance hall with stairs leads to all principal reception rooms as well as a cloakroom. Stairs rising to the first floor, split halfway, providing two separate sets of stairs up to the first-floor landing.

Double doors from the entrance hall lead into the spacious sitting room with large, understairs storage cupboard. Windows to the front and side aspect with French doors opening out to the garden leave the room flooded with sunlight. The bright, well-equipped kitchen has a comprehensive range of wall and base storage units and worksurfaces to three sides. Built-in appliances include an AEG double fan oven and gas hob with extractor unit over. There is also under-counter space for a washing machine and dishwasher, as well as plenty of room for a breakfast table. An airing cupboard houses the gas fired central heating boiler with shelving for linen storage, windows to the front and rear aspect and side pedestrian door leading into the courtyard. The ground floor layout is completed by a study/snug/dining room with front aspect window and wooden floors. This useful and versatile space offers options for a variety of uses, including a fourth bedroom, should it be required.

The first-floor landing has character wooden beams, giving the property a unique cottage feel. The landing area features a useful space, which has been cleverly configured into a study area with Velux window. From the landing, doors lead off to all the bedroom and bathroom accommodation. Large, light and airy, the dual aspect master bedroom has stunning elevated views across neighbouring countryside. It has a fully tiled en-suite, comprising walk-in shower, washbasin, WC and heated towel rail. There are two additional bedrooms to this level, both of which are served by a family bathroom comprising a panelled bath, washbasin and WC with a feature triangular obscure windows to the rear aspect. All bedrooms on the first floor afford picturesque views over fields and countryside beyond.

The beautiful, well-maintained garden is a significant feature of this lovely home. The garden affords a good degree of privacy and is of a southerly aspect with spectacular views. The lawned garden wraps itself around the front and side of the property and features a large expanse of level lawn with planted bed surrounds and post-and-rail borders. The brick paved terrace outside the sitting room provides ample room for patio table and chairs.

To the side of the cottage, is a good-sized parking area for several vehicles, together with a single garage.

There is a large, shared courtyard in the middle of the adjoining properties, accessed through double gates under an archway.
