

This beautifully kept detached property has been proficiently extended, creating a stunning family home suitable for a large family, and is located within walking distance of all three local grammar schools.

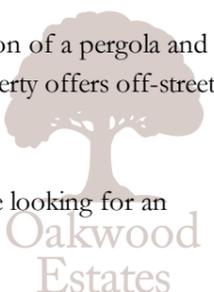

The ground floor comprises three reception rooms, including a spacious sitting room with separate 11ft study/TV room, and an exceptional 25ft kitchen diner across the back of the property. A ground floor bedroom also benefits access to en-suite downstairs shower room.

The kitchen features a fantastic range of shaker-style cupboards and integrated appliances, all complemented by wooden worktops and underfloor heated tiled floor, giving a cosy cottage appeal to the extended portion of the property. Four skylight windows and French doors overlooking the delightful rear garden provide all day sunlight. Additionally there is a convenient utility room with space for white goods.

Four double bedrooms benefit from a range of fitted wardrobes, whilst the master bedroom, stretching 13ft, occupies another en-suite shower room.

The attractive rear garden is of substantial size and has been immaculately landscaped, enjoying the addition of a pergola and shrubbery borders, creating a quiet sanctuary for outdoor enthusiasts. A driveway to the front of the property offers off-street parking for up to three cars.

The house has been kept to an extremely high standard, providing a charming family home for those looking for an immediate move.
