

Wholaw Tongue Farm, Coal Pit Lane, Shawclough Road Rossendale BB4 9SB

Rawtenstall – 3 Miles

Haslingden – 5 Miles

Wholaw Tongue Farm is a former traditional farmstead which has been totally renovated extending the living accommodation into the adjoining barn with the privacy of 22.42 acres of surrounding meadow and pastureland and a complete new range of cattle sheds with multi purpose use including equestrian, small animal or storage. Rawtenstall, Haslingden and Bacup are all in close proximity representing a thriving community with shops, supermarkets and schools. Manchester city centre is only 30 minutes away down the A56 Bury bypass. The house renovation has been undertaken meticulously and exterior stone walls all have an inner block lining with double cavity insulation and painted interior finish. All the ground floor has underfloor piped heating from two boiler sources as is the master bedroom ensuite. Bedroom 2 ensuite is electric underfloor heating and the rest of the first floor is radiator heating. All interior doors are solid light oak as is the stairway and some wall panelling. Sanitary ware throughout is all in white porcelain with chrome wall mounted heated towel rails. The driveway access has been completed with a tarmac surface and hard wearing concrete between the two ranges of farmbuildings and extensive tarmac surface for parking and/or turning in front of the residence. The grassland is currently undergoing rolling and reseeded operations and will soon be in prime condition.
