85 Hayes Road, Bromley, Kent BR2 9AE

A substantial Edwardian semi detached family home built around 1903, naturally built over three floors with an abundance of original features throughout. Impressive welcoming entrance hall with stripped wooden flooring, two delightful reception rooms, kitchen breakfast room with timber double glazed casement doors to the rear garden, and separate cloakroom to the ground floor. Five bedrooms with all rooms having fire places, white suite family bathroom on the first floor and newly installed shower room to the top floor. Outside the beautiful rear garden is around 110 ft with a selection of mature trees, shrubs and large lawn. To the front of the property is a gravel driveway providing parking for three to four cars with double gates to the side. The property is set within a popular location with great transport links, local schools and outside recreational spaces within walking distance. Double glazed and gas fired central heating.

Location

Hayes Road runs between Westmoreland Road and Hayes Lane Bromley. Local schools include the sought after Harris Primary Academy and St Mark's Primary School and Ravensbourne secondary school. Bromley High street with a range of amenities including The Glades Shopping Centre and Bromley South Station are around 0.7 of a mile away, with fast (about 18 minutes) and frequent services to London Victoria. Bus services pass along Westmoreland Road with the new Superloop and several services run along Hayes Road. Norman Park and Nuffield Heath are a short walk away.
