2/ OLD BAKERS COTTAGE, LANGDALE ROAD, GRASMERE

Old Bakers Cottage is a cosy, characterful ground floor cottage that has recently been refurbished to an extremely high standard. The property is a successful holiday let investment managed by Cumbrian Cottage Holidays achieving a gross rental income in the region of £30,000 per annum and has proved to be extremely popular due to the standard of accommodation and the central location. The accommodation comprises open plan “L” shaped dining lounge with rural aspect towards Helm Cragg, double bedroom with en-suite bathroom, inner hallway, twin bedroom with en-suite shower room, modern fitted kitchen, rear hallway and utility. Courtyard with garden table and chairs. The cottage presently has a parking permit for nearby car parks. Grasmere is one of Lakelands most famous picturesque villages being a favourite walkers paradise and once being the home of Wordsworth. The village boasts a wealth of characterful properties, cafes, Heaton Cooper Art Gallery, quaint country Inns and Tea Shops. The village sits at the northern tip of Rydal Water with the dramatic Lakeland fells towering above. Grasmere is a ten minute drive from Ambleside, almost midway between Windermere and Keswick making this an ideal holiday cottage location.
