Situation

St James Park is a quiet residential street that runs parallel with Julian Road and to the rear of St James Square and links both Portland Place with Park Street Mews.

St James Square was built in 1790 as a communal garden square and it comprises of forty–five Grade I listed Georgian townhouses, each facing the private gardens and mature trees. Today it remains as one of the only Grade 1 listed, fully residential Georgian squares in the nation.

This highly sought–after residential address is conveniently located and has excellent local amenities, including a popular deli, award winning gastro–pub, chemist, florist, organic green grocers, national chain super–market and hairdressers. 5–star gym and spa facilities are available at the nearby Royal Crescent and Priory Hotels.

Many excellent schools are on the doorstep including St Andrew’s Primary, St Stephen’s C of E Primary School, Kingswood School, The Royal High School and King Edwards School Bath.

The UNESCO World Heritage City of Bath offers a wonderful array of chain and independent retail outlets, many fine restaurants, cafes and wine bars along with a number of well–respected cultural activities which include world famous international music and literary festivals, the Roman Baths and Pump rooms and some lovely museums and art galleries.

Sports fans are spoilt for choice with Premiership Rugby at Bath RFC, glorious summer matches at Bath Cricket Club, league football with Bath City FC and world class sporting facilities at Bath University.

Communications include a direct line to London Paddington, Bristol, Salisbury, Southampton and South Wales from Bath Spa Railway Station. The M4 Motorway (junction 18) is 8 miles to the north and Bristol airport is 18 miles to the west.
