

Set along one of Langley's most distinguished residential roads, this exceptional five-bedroom detached property on Upton Court Road enjoys a truly special setting, overlooking Upton Court Park with clear views across to Windsor Castle.

The house has a strong presence from the outside, with a wide frontage that gives a great sense of space. One standout feature is the beautifully crafted arched window that sits elegantly above the front door, flooding the stairwell with natural light and perfectly framing a statement chandelier.

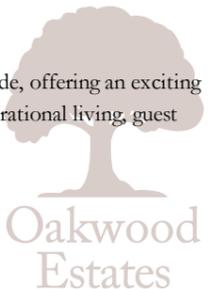

Thoughtfully expanded over time, the home benefits from rear, side, and loft extensions, providing a generous and flexible living space. Three expansive reception areas including a big conservatory are ideally suited to a large family, whilst the bedroom accommodation is equally impressive.

Each of the five double bedrooms are well-proportioned, several rooms benefit from fitted wardrobes while others have ample space for freestanding furniture, a fantastic benefit of the home's generous width. The principal bedroom is a real highlight of the home. Exceptionally spacious, it offers a suite-like feel, with plentiful space for a superking bed, extra seating, and a dressing area, as well as benefitting from its own en-suite shower.

To the rear, a wide and highly useable garden mirrors the home's impressive proportions, offering a private outdoor space that is mostly laid to lawn. The double integral garage adds practicality and convenience, suitable for storage or parking two cars. Further parking for four cars is available on the front driveway.

Positioned in a prime location, moments from three nearby grammar schools, this is a rare opportunity to acquire a substantial home with character, presence and great scope.

In addition, the property is sold with proposed and approved planning permission for a further side extension to the right hand-side, offering an exciting opportunity to create a self-contained one bedroom annexe, with living area, kitchen, and shower room, perfect for multi-generational living, guest accommodation, or a private office.
