

Osborne Road, London

Offers in Excess of £1,200,000

Payne & Co are pleased to offer for sale this impressive, terraced property, ideal for families. It is conveniently located with excellent public transport links and various local amenities close by. This property offers four spacious bedrooms, three of which have built-in wardrobes. The fourth bedroom is a loft room with the added benefit of an en-suite. There are a total of three bathrooms in the property, thoughtfully dispersed over the ground and first floor. This property has two reception rooms, one of which features a charming fireplace and a bay window, characterising the period property it is. There is also a modern kitchen for all your home cooking needs and a utility room, a practical addition to any home. Features of the property include off-street parking and a basement, both of which offer additional space and convenience. The property is situated in a conservation area, adding an element of historical charm to the surroundings. A notable feature is the roof terrace, perfect for enjoying sunny days. This is a period property, filled with character, waiting for the right family to call it home.
