The Albany, Ipswich

We are pleased to introduce a rare opportunity to acquire this exceptionally well kept detached bungalow spanned over circa 2500 sq ft. The property is nestled on a quiet no through road but ideally positioned close to amenities.

Internally the property comprises the porch, entrance hall, kitchen/diner, reception room, sun room, utility, cloakroom, living room, bedroom one which features an En-suite plus fitted wardrobes and draws, bedroom two which also features fitted wardrobes and drawers, bedroom three, bedroom four bedroom five/office and bathroom. The property also contains a workshop and double garage both with power and lighting. Externally the property benefits from an in out paved drive way which offers ample off road parking for multiple vehicles.

The abode is equipped with underfloor heating throughout and precautionary ceiling heating which runs off of electric. The home utilises solar energy and has been fitted with the maximum amount of solar panels for a domestic property and also reaps the benefits of the maximum feeding tariff which is transferable to the new owners.

The bungalow has been kept with care and love over the course of ownership and is now ready for new owners to come in and make it their own.
