LOCATION

These new homes are situated within the popular coastal village of Llanarth, strategically positioned along the A487 West Wales coast road the village offers a wealth of local amenities and services ideal for those seeking to live in a historic local village with all their facilities within immediate walking distance and on their doorstep.

The development sits within the historic pastures of Plas Gwynfryn (also known as Florin), overlooking the village and set within the wooded environment of the historic mansion house.

The development meanders through historic treelined boundaries, carefully preserving the character and setting of the area.

Llanarth is some 3 miles from the Cardigan Bay coastline at the fishing village of New Quay, with its sandy beaches and coastline walks to the nearby Llanina point and Cei Bach (Little Quay Bay). New Quay offers an array of local bars and restaurants with spectacular coastal scenery over Cardigan Bay.

The Georgian Harbour Town of Aberaeron is some 4 miles to the north offering secondary education, leisure centre, community health centre, traditional high street offerings, local café bars and restaurants.

The University town of Aberystwyth lies some 20 miles to the north with the ever popular market and estuary town of Cardigan some 18 miles to the south.

HELP TO BUY WALES

Help to Buy Wales is an initiative that provides shared equity loan assistance to home buyers with funding from the Welsh Government This scheme makes new-build homes available to all home buyers (not just first time buyers). Support of up to a maximum of 20% of the purchase price is available to buyers through a shared equity loan funded by Help to Buy Wales, while buyers are required to provide a deposit of a minimum of 5% of the purchase price

Scheme is available on selected plots in selected sites. Obsidian Developments Ltd cannot advise you on a mortgage. The Help to Buy: Equity Loan scheme is subject to availability and may be withdrawn at any time without notice. Not to be used in conjunction with any other purchase assistance scheme, offer or promotion.
