The Situation

Located directly opposite to the beautiful Pennington Common, which is within the New Forest National Park. The village of Pennington has a Tesco's express, a general store with Post Office, a pub and an extensive leisure centre. Schools for all age groups are within walking distance and so is the picturesque Georgian market town of Lymington, which is famed for its attractive High Street, river, world renowned sailing facilities and yacht clubs. The town offers an excellent range of schooling, both state and private, catering for all ages. There is a useful branch line rail connection to the village of Brockenhurst (situated approximately 6 miles to the north) with a mainline railway station (London Waterloo approximately 90 minutes) and its own tertiary (sixth form) college. The New Forest National Park walks are within a five minute drive of the cottage.

Directions

From the top of Lymington High Street bear left at the one way system and continue on the A337 following signs to Pennington. Proceed straight over the roundabout and take the second right into South Street. Continue through Pennington passing the Tesco's Express on the right hand side, and turn immediately left into Wainsford Road. After approximately 300 metres, the property can be found on the left hand side overlooking the common.

Grounds & Gardens

Outside, a beautiful south-facing garden awaits. A charming pergola graces the patio, offering a shaded oasis for al fresco dining. At the front of the property, a gravel driveway with an elegant oak gate and flanked by sleeper borders adorned with flourishing plants and shrubs. Beyond lies a detached garage, offering ample space for vehicles and storage. The property is positioned with a beautiful view overlooking the common.
