Description

Brought to market with no onward chain, this well-presented and versatile bungalow occupies a corner plot position within a small cul-de-sac, with the benefit of a utility room, en-suite facilities, double garage, and off-road parking. The living accommodation comprises a large living room, a kitchen/dining room, utility, and a conservatory. There are four bedrooms, all a good size, three with built in storage and one with an en-suite shower room. French doors lead from the living room and conservatory to the private rear garden, which features a large patio and lawn, bordered by a variety of mature trees, shrubs and plants.
