This unique family home offers versatility, light and space in abundance plus elevated views across open countryside! What may appear to be a generous bungalow from the outside is actually a split-level house situated in a sought-after residential area of Alveston close to village shops, schools and country rambles from the threshold. Entering through the front door a welcoming entrance hall sits almost centrally drawing you in to what lies beyond the closed doors! To the left is the dining room with smart kitchen beyond with a range of fitted units and side door to outside. Steps from the dining room lead you up to first floor lounge, swathed in light with its large picture window overlooking the garden and beyond, and in the cooler months is the original open fireplace. On this level are three double bedrooms, two with an outlook over the garden and all share the family bathroom. A wooden spiral staircase from the hallway leads down to the guest bedroom with en-suite shower room with patio doors to outside. A door leads from the bedroom into the larger than average single garage with store rooms to the side and utility area at the rear. (Subject to necessary planning consents, this could be converted to a fantastic open plan kitchen/family/dining area running right across the rear) Outside the mature and well-tended gardens are tiered and offer a haven for keen gardening enthusiasts and children to let off steam. A driveway to the side of the property leads down to the garage with off-street parking. Benefits include gas central heating and double glazing. This is a property you won't want to miss, make your viewing request today!
