Description

Offered to the market with no chain is this well loved three bedroom mid terraced home. The property has been well loved and restored to keep as much original character as possible, including an original cast iron toilet downstairs.

Walking through the original 1930's stained glass front door you will instantly feel at home. Leading into the well sized living room you will find there is ample space. The fireplace is the centre piece of the room, although this is purely decorative at the moment, it could easily be turned into a fully functioning fire place.

Continuing through the property you will find the large Kitchen diner. The kitchen has been designed with families in mind there are ample of cupboards and worktop space and the current owners have maximised space for chaotic family life. To the rear of the property is the downstairs toilet and utility room, handy for hanging the washing out of sight.

Leading upstairs you will see the large landing which takes you to three well sized bedrooms and the family bathroom. In the bathroom there is a free standing roll top bath, waterfall shower, and beautiful tiled flooring which resembles what would have been originally laid. Moving to the bedrooms, on offer are two well sized double bedrooms and a smaller single room.

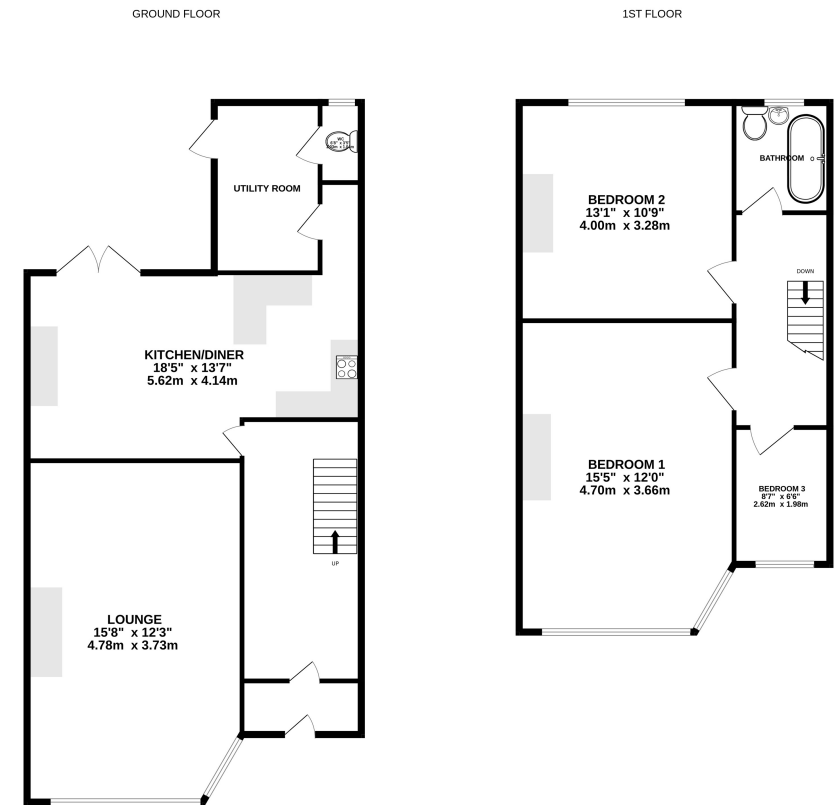

If you are looking for as well loved home for your family look no further! Call the Greyfox sales team today.
