Property Summary

An exclusive gated development of newly constructed homes finished to an exacting standard, moments from Ashley Cross, Parkstone mainline railway and the open water of Poole Harbour. All of the properties benefit from a spacious kitchen/lifestyle room which opens to a generous rear garden, a principal bedroom with an ensuite bathroom and balcony, private parking and an eco-considerate and energy efficient design. Chandlers Mews is a select development of only nine homes which are ideal as either main residences or second homes as they enjoy a perfect positioning for transport links, amenities/leisure facilities, nearby beaches and Poole Harbour. With flexible accommodation arranged over three levels and a specification rarely seen in newly constructed homes, these stunning homes offer many things that genuinely sets them apart from the competition.

About the Property

All too often with new home developments, Estate Agents write an essay on the kitchen work surfaces and appliances, the quality of the flooring, and then move on to extol the virtues of the taps in the bathrooms... Well, we're not immune to that so we'll cover the work surfaces and taps in a minute, but what we'd really like to start with is the fact that these homes have incredibly flexible layouts that simply work..! Basically, these homes allow you to use the accommodation in a way that's right for you and it all starts on the ground floor where you have an amazing kitchen/ lifestyle room that opens out to the garden.

The kitchen/lifestyle room is easily large enough to incorporate sofas and a dining table but if you choose to be really indulgent with the space and see yourself entertaining in a room that will not only impress your guests but also gives plenty of space for a party, we'd recommend you use another room in the house as your separate lounge. Alternatively, if you work from home and need a home office, again these properties deliver with their layout. The flexibility of a home is something that's often overlooked, but with these properties, you can simply choose how you live.

If you need four bedrooms - you've got them, and better still they're all comfortable doubles that have the use of a full-sized contemporary bathroom and a stunning ensuite double shower room. We're not going to focus on the taps in the bathrooms or the tiles on the walls as you can see those on the pictures - but we can't leave the bathrooms without mentioning the ambient recessed mood lighting as it adds that 'boujee' feeling and gives a flavour of the design elements that have been incorporated in these homes...

The 'live how you choose' theme continues outside with a choice of homes that offer different things to different people. Some of the properties have two parking spaces, whilst some have gated access to the rear garden. However you live, whatever you need, the options with the outside space are yours to choose from.

So, we've run out of space and there's no more room on the page to mention the kitchen work surfaces or the flooring – but we do have a full specification breakdown available on request as the fixtures, fittings, appliances and standard of workmanship throughout is second to none. Even better, simply book a viewing to have a look and see why these homes are a firm favourite of ours...

About the Location

Although Chandlers Mews is tucked away in a small gated development on a private road, it's surprisingly close to restaurants, fitness centres and shopping facilities. Whilst the immediate area offers you all the conveniences you could need, the café culture of Ashley Cross is also just a short walk away. For commuters, the location couldn't be better with road and rail links to surrounding areas close by and the favoured schools of Courthill and Baden Powell are also on your doorstep. With nearby award-winning sandy beaches, the stunning backdrop of Poole Harbour and a choice of either Bournemouth or Poole as your local town centre, life in this area is as good as it gets..!
