ACCOMMODATION:

Steeped in history, this exceptional property is believed to have origins dating back over 500 years and showcases a captivating blend of traditional and contemporary features. The house is predominantly constructed using durable stone walling under a pitched, tiled roof, with more recent additions that seamlessly merge with the original structure.

As you step inside, you are greeted by an impressive and remarkably spacious interior that truly needs to be experienced first-hand to fully grasp its scale, character, and charm. The accommodation begins with an inviting entrance porch, leading to a generously proportioned lounge adorned with a captivating inglenook fireplace, a true centrepiece that exudes warmth and character. A separate dining room provides an elegant space for entertaining, while a thoughtfully designed study area/inner hall offers a quiet retreat for work or study. The modern kitchen/breakfast room is conveniently connected to a cloakroom.

To the first floor, a galleried landing sets the stage for the beautifully appointed bedrooms. The primary bedroom boasts an en-suite bathroom with the three additional large bedrooms offering ample space for family members or guests, whilst sharing access to a well-appointed bathroom.

Throughout the property, the comfort is further enhanced by oil-fired central heating and UPVC double glazed windows, ensuring a cosy living environment. The characterful features, such as exposed beams, elm panelled internal doors, and additional inglenook fireplaces, imbue the home with a sense of history and timeless appeal.

OUTSIDE:

Outside, this captivating residence is enveloped by fully enclosed gardens that grace both the front and rear of the property. The rear garden is a true haven, offering a tranquil retreat with captivating open views of fields and countryside, stretching towards the magnificent Quantock Hills. The front of the property provides ample off-road parking space for numerous vehicles, and a large integral garage/workshop offers convenience and additional storage options.

LOCATION:

Enmore, the village where this remarkable property is located, offers a range of local amenities, including a church, primary school, and inviting inns. Nature enthusiasts and outdoor lovers will delight in the proximity to the Quantock Hills, an area of outstanding natural beauty, offering countless opportunities for exploration and country pursuits. Golf enthusiasts will appreciate the nearby Enmore Park Golf Course, which adds to the allure of this idyllic countryside location.

SERVICES:

Oil fired central heating, water and drainage are connected. The property is currently banded D for council tax within Somerset Council.
