The Property

Tucked away along a quiet private lane in the highly sought-after area of the New Forest, this enchanting Grade II Listed cob cottage enjoys a secluded setting with far-reaching countryside views.

Rich in period charm, the cottage retains many original features including exposed beams, lever-latch doors and a striking inglenook fireplace, complemented by sympathetic updates. Improvements include a complete re-thatch in 2019 and rewiring with window refurbishment in 2018.

A stable door opens into a slate-tiled porch leading to the dual-aspect sitting room, centred around the impressive inglenook fireplace with oak beam and exposed timbers. The adjoining dual-aspect kitchen/dining room features exposed brickwork, beams, tiled flooring and oak cabinetry with solid oak and granite worktops, Butler sink and electric oven with gas hob, running off gas bottles. This space provides generous room for dining and entertaining. An L-shaped back porch provides additional storage and appliance space.

Upstairs, the landing leads to two double bedrooms and a fully tiled family bathroom. Both bedrooms feature semi-vaulted ceilings, built-in storage and attractive rural views, while the bathroom includes a bath with shower over and period-style fittings.

Currently used as self-contained ancillary accommodation, the space features a bedroom, open-plan kitchen/diner/lounge area and a bathroom. The outbuilding benefits from double-glazed windows, with water and power connected, and features sliding patio doors that open directly onto the terrace, creating a light and versatile living environment.

Grounds and Gardens

Outside, an attractive rustic-style fence encloses the charming front garden, with a mix of shrubbery and a paved path which leads to the front door. A private lane leads up to the house and opens into a parking area, suitable for several vehicles. A side access leads to the rear garden where decked steps rise to a raised seating area and lawn. The grounds have been thoughtfully arranged, with a sweeping gravel path leading to a further lawned area and a paved terrace positioned in front of a substantial L-shaped timber outbuilding, with water and power supply, currently being utilised as ancillary accommodation. In addition, there is a separate outbuilding, which could be used a home office or hobby room, as well as a sizeable workshop/shed. Completing the outdoor space is a covered barbecue area, perfectly suited to al-fresco entertaining. There is also a greenhouse in place, with planning previously granted for a shepherd's hut in it's location, offering potential for additional accommodation or income, subject to the necessary consents.
