Edial Barn, Edial House Farm, Lichfield Road, Burntwood, Staffs, WS7 0HT

£1,200,000

A stunning newly converted detached barn conversion home extending to some 2,900 square feet in a delightful rural fringe between Burntwood and Lichfield. The far-reaching breathtaking countryside views to the rear which reach to Hammerwich church spire are taken full advantage of by the wide sliding glazed screens which face towards the view, with a seamless distinction between the inside and outside space. The quality barn has a beautiful open plan living space divided by a central fireplace with log burner which flows seamlessly into the quality fully equipped kitchen with quartz work tops. Alongside the utility room is a very useful study, whilst also on the ground floor is a generous guests double bedroom with dressing room and en suite. The first floor boasts an impressive master bedroom suite with large dressing room and luxury bathroom, whilst the third bedroom and nursery are well served by the luxury family shower room. As you would expect all sanitaryware is of the highest quality and finish. Outside along with the generous parking there is a gravelled courtyard behind the garage which is a perfect functional area ideal for drying washing or letting the dogs run free. This preserves the principal garden as a wonderful entertaining space from which those glorious views can be enjoyed. To fully appreciate this most stylish property an early viewing would be strongly encouraged.
