The Property

Brown and Kay are pleased to market this generously proportioned apartment situated in the highly sought after area of Branksome Park. The apartment occupies a ground floor position in this 3 storey building. The large windows make this a light and bright home with a bungalow feel. It is situated at the quiet rear of the development away from the road. The apartment has a large living room with a beautiful view of the mature gardens and direct access to the grounds from the gated terrace. An extremely generous master bedroom also has a door to the terrace. Two further double bedrooms, one currently used as a separate dining room. It boasts a beautifully fitted kitchen with integrated appliances, a four piece large bathroom plus additional cloakroom. The apartment is gas centrally heated with a combi boiler. Together with a good sized garage, ample visitor parking on site and a share of freehold this would make a superb choice first or second home.

Avenue Court is well positioned on The Avenue to take advantage of all the area has to offer. In a comfortable walk are golden sandy beaches with miles of scenic promenade stretching to Bournemouth and beyond in one direction, Sandbanks Peninsula and Poole Harbour in the other - this is a perfect location for those who love the outdoors and water sport enthusiasts. Vibrant Westbourne Village with its mix of cafes, bars, restaurants and boutique shops is a short walk. This area is well served with local and national bus services for Dorset, the surrounding counties and London Victoria plus train stations with links to London Waterloo.
