Grounds & Gardens

It is the property's setting that sets it apart. Sitting at the end of a private drive and completely surrounded by its own land which extends to over 22 acres the sense of privacy, peace and seclusion is unsurpassed. The house is surrounded by manicured gardens which are laid to lawn and planted with specimen trees and mature shrubs. Much of the land is traditional, loosely-planted New Forest woodland with a mix of evergreen and broadleaf trees creating picturesque havens where wildlife flourished. There is a back gate in the woods with direct access to the New Forest

To the north of the house is a cleared area where there is a mobile home which has a certificate of lawful use and, with some updating could be used as ancillary accommodation to the main house.

To the south of the house is an extremely generous secure barn with very high ceilings and extending to over 4,170 square feet.

Directions

From Lymington take the B3054 towards Beaulieu. Follow signs into Beaulieu but don't turn right up the high street. Instead, carry straight on passing the Montagu Arms on your right. Leave the village and the road will start to climb uphill. At the top of the hill, take the turning on the right signed to Holbury. Continue on this road ignoring the immediate turning right to Exbury and Lepe. Continue for just over 1.5 miles until you see the village sign for Holbury. Just after the sign, take the track on the right opposite Park Lane. Continue down this drive for about a third of a mile after which the gates to the property will be found. Head down the drive, forking right when the road divides, and the house will be found after a few hundred yards on the right hand side.

The nearby village of Blackfield offers a range of pubs and shops catering for most daily requirements.
