

This extended two bedroom end of terrace house is located within a popular residential area and is offered to the market as immaculately presented having been recently renovated throughout and with no onward chain

On the ground floor is an open-plan 25ft living room and kitchen, with doors that open onto the garden. As this level is a half basement, there is a great sense of quiet immersion in the garden. The slate floor is warmed with underfloor heating and the room is flooded with natural light from a cleverly concealed light well. The neat kitchen has polished concrete worktops and plenty of storage. There is also a downstairs WC and a secret bedroom for the family cat. Every detail of the space has been carefully thought through without feeling over-designed.

On the first floor is the family bathroom, with a huge double height window and privacy screening. The bedroom has built-in storage and large windows that overlook the garden. The owners have also devised a small study, big enough only for a desk and chair, in order that they can work from home.

On the top floor of the house is the bright 22ft master bedroom. Entrance is from an open staircase with a door that closes at the bottom to maximise the sense of space. The room has three large skylights and a large semi-attic storage.

The house won the best small home category in the Daily Telegraph / Home Building & Renovating Magazine awards when it was built in 2007.

Externally the rear garden has been landscaped and is mainly laid to lawn with a patio area ideal for summer dining. To the rear of the garden is a 21ft garage and gated parking for 2 cars. This property is an ideal first time purchase or investment due to its superb order and convenient location.
