COASTAL

A well-presented two-bedroom detached bungalow occupying a generous south-facing plot and offering excellent scope for modernisation

The Property

The property is approached over a front driveway leading to the central front door and entrance porch, providing space for coats and shoes. This opens into a central hallway giving access to the accommodation.

The living accommodation is located to the rear and includes a spacious L-shaped dining and sitting room, which opens through to a glazed conservatory overlooking the rear garden, with doors leading directly outside.

The kitchen offers a range of wall-mounted and base units with wraparound work surfaces, a central island, space for washing machine, and a sink unit. Additional doors lead to a pantry cupboard, a storage area and there is a door leading to the side access to the property.

The Local Area

This delightful home is situated in the small village of Burton, close to the local school, doctor's surgery, two gastro pubs and shop. It is situated on the edge of the Avon Valley, approximately two miles from the harbour-side town of Christchurch, with easy access to the south coasts stunning beaches at Bournemouth and Poole.

Christchurch is a delight; a harbour side town of character and charm located where the Avon and Stour rivers flow into Christchurch Harbour. Positioned between Bournemouth and the New Forest, Christchurch is a lively town with a mainline station and a good variety of independent and national brands (from Boots to Waitrose).

It has become something of a foodie destination: chock-a-block with cafes, pubs, and restaurants, such as The Jetty on Mudeford Quay or The Noisy Lobster on Avon beach. It is also the venue for a popular food and wine festival that attracts some high-profile chefs. Other attractions include the priory, castle ruins, nature reserves, nearby beaches and Mudeford Quay with ferry service to Mudeford Spit (with iconic beach huts) and Hengistbury Head.
