Embrace the outdoor lifestyle with a natural stone patio ideal for summer BBQs and al fresco dining under the open skies. The majority of the garden is laid to lawn, enclosed by mature hedges and timber fencing, offering a private and tranquil setting. A generous shed stands as a practical addition, promising ample storage space for tools and equipment. For added convenience, a wide side passageway leads to the front of the property, ensuring ease of access and enhancing the overall functionality of this charming outdoor space.

WHAT THE OWNERS SAY

"This house has been a wonderful home for us to raise our two boys over the last 10yrs. The kitchen is an amazing hub to stay in the thick of it, whether hosting or parenting. The living room is a haven to escape and unwind while the kids go wild in the garden. BBQs and breakfasts alike have been enjoyed by the sprawling wisteria on the sun trap patio. We've enjoyed many walks and bike rides, long or short, often stopping at one of the many local parks. A highlight is being a short distance from the Cole Green Way which goes all the way to Hertford if feeling energetic. The neighbours are friendly and helpful, including those across the road & the street WhatsApp group is great for when we forget Bank Holiday bin night.

IN ADDITION

We appreciated having the house and garden space during Covid times, especially the play room leading straight outside. This has been a happy home during the time we've had it and we hope the next family get to put their heart and soul into it too."

ABOUT WELWYN GARDEN CITY

Welwyn Garden City bears the legacy of Sir Ebenezer Howard, who founded the town in the 1920s and developed it into a designated new town in 1948. Conceptualized as a harmonious blend of urban conveniences and rural tranquility, Welwyn Garden City offered residents an escape from the hustle and bustle of overcrowded cities to a haven of sunshine, leafy lanes, open countryside, and inviting cafes. The town's design emphasized creating a healthy and vibrant environment for its inhabitants. Today, Welwyn Garden City's town centre stands as a vibrant hub teeming with activity and features an array of shops to cater to various tastes and needs. The focal point is the Howard Shopping Centre, home to popular high street retailers like John Lewis, complemented by convenient supermarket options including Waitrose and Sainsburys on the town's outskirts. Additionally, a charming cinema venue offers the latest film releases for entertainment seekers.
