Description

A truly enchanting Grade II listed cottage, set within an extensive plot on the highly sought after Orchardleigh Estate, with the most incredible views and yet within five minutes' drive of Frome Town.

The accommodation within the house is filled with attractive period features which include stone mullion windows, exposed wooden floorboards and attractive elaborate fireplaces. The front door opens through to a useful entrance hall. From here a door leads into the kitchen which houses a range of wall and base units, wooden worktops, room for appliances and a window overlooking the gardens. From the kitchen doors lead into both the dining room and the living room. The dining room is vast and spans almost the entire width of the house, providing an excellent sociable entertaining space with two windows overlooking the back gardens and a door leading onto the gardens. The living room is a naturally bright space with wonderful open views to the front of the cottage across open countryside. A wood burner takes centre stage and offers a romantic setting for the evenings.

Also, on the ground floor there is a w.c and a home office which doubles up as an excellent third bedroom for when guests come to stay.

On the first floor there are two double bedrooms and a bathroom.

Outside

Temple Lodge enjoys just under three quarters of an acre of ground which is predominantly laid to lawn and decorated by a wide variety of mature fruit trees. The gardens are great for anybody with children but equally represents an exciting opportunity for the green fingered to get their teeth stuck into. There is off road parking for multiple vehicles.

Location

Orchardleigh is a country estate north of Frome and comprises of a beautiful stately home, a historic island church, a lake and an 18-hole golf course and lies approximately two miles from the popular market town of Frome.
