AMPHILL – is a Georgian market town steeped in history with connections to Henry VIII. Situated between Bedford and Luton it has a population of about 14,000. A regular market with local traders has taken place on Thursdays for centuries. The town has several lively pubs, a wide variety of very well-regarded restaurants, a Waitrose supermarket and a selection of small independent specialist shops and a small museum. A number of small businesses such as solicitors, estate agents, financial services, hairdressers, and music schools are located in town. Larger businesses are to be found on the commercial and industrial developments on the outskirts, along the town's bypass. Amphill Great Park is beautiful, a great place to walk the dogs. There's a children's play area and a place to get a snack and a refreshment. It also hosts a three day music and family gala weekend in the summer. Amphill also has a high concentration of public amenities, The local Upper School in Amphill, Redborne School, is a very successful 13 - 18 school. There is a bus service to Bedford and a private bus to the excellent Harpur Trust schools. There is also a doctor's surgery, fire & ambulance stations. Amphill benefits from excellent commuter links, located between junctions 12 and 13 of the M1, nearby the A6 links Luton to Bedford and the A421 an efficient road into Milton Keynes. Amphill is twinned with Nissan Lez Enservne in France. There are also rugby, football, cricket and bowls clubs.
