DESCRIPTION

Two Ways is a charming end-terrace period cottage built of brick and flint walls under a pantiled roof and situated in a prominent location just a few steps from the water's edge on East Quay. This former fisherman's cottage has fine sea views to the north and all of the town's amenities are just a short walk away. There is well presented surprisingly spacious accommodation comprising an open plan kitchen/dining/living room to the ground floor with a landing upstairs leading to 2 bedrooms and a shower room. The cottage also has the benefit of a wood burning stove in the living area, cast iron bedroom fireplace, gas-fired central heating installed, engineered oak flooring and sash windows to the north elevation.

Two Ways is being offered for sale with no onward chain and would suit a number of purposes perhaps as a second home with holiday lettings potential as well as for a compact home in an idyllic yet convenient location.

SITUATION

Wells-next-the-Sea has been a fishing and commercial port for nearly 600 years which still supports a thriving fishing fleet bringing in crabs, lobsters, mussels and whelks sold locally on the quayside and in nearby restaurants. With a growing number of leisure craft moorings, a lively, sociable sailing club, harbour and sea fishing trips, the town caters for every type of water activity including "gillying" -crabbing on the quayside. Situated a mile from the Quay, the stunning extensive sandy beach is ranked as one of the top 10 in the country by Telegraph Travel. Against a backdrop of Corsican pinewoods, the beach is home to the much publicised, iconic colourful beach huts, available to buy or rent daily.

From the top of town down to the Quay, Staithe Street provides visitors and locals with a wide variety of shops, cafes, galleries and food stores. For entertainment, the newly opened Wells Maltings offers live entertainment and exhibitions, whilst alongside the Quay, are all the usual popular traditional seaside attractions. Locals agree with The Times in March 2021 who voted Wells as one of the best places to live. Alongside coastal scenery, wildlife and water sports, the town has a primary and secondary school – both rated Good by Ofsted - as well as a library, doctor's surgery and hospital providing a range of accessible and integrated health and well being services.
