40 Ham Lane, Lenham, Kent. ME17 2LL.

Offers in Excess of £425,000 Freehold

Property Summary

"I really like the position of this house. Tucked away along Ham Lane but within walking distance of the centre of the village and the local railway station". - Philip Jarvis, Director.

A modern three bedroom detached house found in an ever popular location in Lenham.

Extremely well presented, the accommodation is arranged with a sitting area leading through to a modern kitchen/dining room. There has more recently been the addition of a conservatory overlooking the garden. There is also a cloakroom downstairs.

Upstairs the master bedroom has a modern ensuite shower room and there are two further bedrooms and a contemporary bathroom.

To the rear is an enclosed garden with decking area and door leading to the garage with is access off Mitchel Close. There is also an additional parking space

The property also benefits from gas central heating and replacement double glazing. It is also being sold with no onward chain.

Well positioned, the many amenities of Lenham are within walking distance. There are two schools, and a railway station in the village. The M20 motorway is easily access at Junction eight approximately five miles away.
