1 Church View, New Road, Tytherington, South Gloucestershire GL12 8UP

This lovely semi-detached house enjoys a secluded village setting, nestled amongst other homes, tucked away at the end of a no-through lane with country rambles right from the front door! It enjoys a plot of circa 0.15 acres, sharing its access and driveway with the adjoining property. There are mature lawned gardens behind with shrub and flower borders, gravelled off-street parking to the front and a covered 'verandah' - perfect for sitting under and enjoying a 'cuppa'. Stepping inside we discovered practical accommodation with space for everyone to spread out. Separate adjoining lounge and dining rooms run front to rear, the kitchen/breakfast room comes complete with an 'Aga' plus space for a dining table and chairs, a cloakroom and a utility room. A third reception room has a kitchenette at one end and an additional staircase to a double bedroom (with internal connecting door) and an en-suite above - a useful annexe space or perhaps as a source of additional income. Moving up the main staircase is a spacious landing, three further double bedrooms and the family bathroom. Practical benefits include double-glazing and oil central heating. If you are looking for a family village home with flexible accommodation, this could be just the place for you - highly recommended!
