OVERVIEW

This much improved and extended three bedroom detached property offers ideal accommodation for dual family if so required, having a garage conversion providing a studio with kitchen off and garden room/lounge. Again, for single family use, this can be further developed as additional space ideal for children. The property enjoys full double glazing, gas central heating and to the first floor there are three good sized bedrooms, and with two of the bedrooms having built-in furniture, removable if required. This property is being sold with no onward chain. Pleasantly located in the popular Belmont area, approximately 1 mile south of Hereford City, close to a host of amenities including Tesco's supermarket and fuel station, Doctors surgery, parkland nearby for walks, and a regular bus service into the City.
