29 The Green, Barton under Needwood, Burton-on-Trent, Staffordshire, DE13 8JB

£725,000

The popularity of the highly sought-after village of Barton under Needwood is understandable given the outstanding amenities, with a range of local shops, pubs and eateries and a class-beating secondary school - John Taylor. The village is therefore a very comfortable environment to live in and this very substantial family home is the perfect way to enjoy village life. Occupying a generous corner plot with a gated driveway, the property has a versatile accommodation layout with four double bedrooms on the first floor, two of which are en suite and a ground floor boasting 4 reception areas including a huge conservatory. The family dining kitchen is awesome and the utility is a great working space. Immaculately presented throughout the property boasts uPVC double glazing and gas-fired central heating. The fore and rear gardens with three garages add to the versatility of this fine home and an early viewing is considered essential.
