The Property

Thought to have been built in the 1890's, the cottage was extended in the 1990's and refurbished by the current vendors in 2016.

A glazed contemporary door leads into a light and airy open plan reception room which benefits from engineered oak flooring throughout with under floor heating. A cosy seating area is set around a feature glass fronted fireplace with a front aspect window overlooking the forest. A real feature of the room is a cantilevered solid oak staircase with glazed balustrades which lead up to the first floor.

The reception room leads through into the rear of the property which has an expanse of glazing set to three sides with sliding patio doors leading out onto the rear garden allowing for plentiful light and open views.

A modern cottage style kitchen is fitted to one side with quality shaker style units at both base and wall level with stone worksurfaces with a peninsular breakfast bar with further storage cupboards set under. An inset sink unit is set in front of a rear aspect window with views across the garden. Integrated appliances include a Siemens induction hob, oven, microwave/grill, warming drawer, fridge and integrated Bosch dishwasher.

There is plenty of space for a dining table and chairs to the other side making a superb space for entertaining and dining.

A stylish shower room is set off the utility with cleverly designed modern white fittings including a wall mounted WC, vanity wash basin and shower cubicle.

Set at the front is a further snug/study with built in cabinetry and shelving.
