Price Range £375,000 to £400,000. This is a delightful two bedroom, semi-detached home with various original Victorian character features. It is tastefully decorated in neutral colours and has a stunning contemporary bathroom. An added feature is the utility room and extra downstairs WC. There is a possibility of either a loft conversion or an extension to the side. Two reception rooms are also a bonus. The house is in central Southborough and tucked away from the main A26 - but within a few minutes walk of main bus stops. High Brooms station, with four trains an hour to London at peak times, is about a mile away. It is a good walk - but within walking distance. The house is nicely presented and ready for you to move into. Both bedrooms are double rooms. We recommend a viewing as soon as possible. EPC:D

Location

This is an ideal first home for anyone needing to be close to schools and amenities. There are shops and restaurants just around the corner. The A21 is just a few minutes drive away, which links to the M25. High Brooms railway station is 1.2 miles away. We have Southborough Primary School and St Gregory's Catholic Senior School. The house is also within walking distance to Senior and Grammar schools that are less than a mile away. Tunbridge Wells town centre is a walk or bus ride away. We have the Victoria shopping centre which is an indoor shopping mall. We also have the world famous Pantiles area of Tunbridge Wells that is steeped in history. It is often buzzing at weekends with Gin, Jazz and Soul Festivals, plus an outdoor market. Visit the Pantiles for breakfast, lunch afternoon tea or dinner in one of the many restaurants.
