“Exceptional three bedroom Grade II listed home embracing a unique ‘lifestyle’ amongst the original Staplehill Abbey, with a stunning private garden”

FREEHOLD GUIDE PRICE £600,000

This thoughtfully converted mid terrace home combines modern living and high specification with a wealth of original features and is one of the few properties positioned opposite and overlooking the original Abbey in a prestigious courtyard setting, with its remaining NHBC 10 year warranty from 2018.

The Cloisters is a collection of luxury, individually converted properties, that were part of a complete restoration of the original Staplehill Abbey and its attached nunnery built in the mid 1800's, providing exclusive lifestyle living within the confines of 70 acres of stunning manicured communal landscaped grounds with a historic fountain, picturesque lake and private secure gated access.

The accommodation has been designed to a high specification, comprising three first floor double bedrooms served by a luxury ensuite and main bathrooms with Trevatone marble effect tiling, a spacious dual aspect lounge/dining room with patio doors and a cosy wood burner, enhancing the cottage feel, a bespoke quality fitted kitchen with quartz worktops and breakfast area.

Other benefits include a separate WC, gas central heating, partial double glazing combined with the charming original peaked windows, spacious entrance hall, private garage, allocated and resident parking and the benefit of a stunning southerly aspect private cottage garden and patio (available to only a handful of property on the development).
