Mulberry House is set within a highly desirable location, with the current residents having owned the property since it was built in 1987. This impressive detached residence offers a generous 3,883 sq.ft of accommodation (inc. garage), featuring five reception rooms and five bedrooms. Entering through a spacious hallway, you are greeted by an impressive 25ft dual aspect living room with attractive fireplace, leading to the delightful conservatory style garden room, which in turn links the formal dining room. A dedicated study provides the perfect retreat for those working from home. The kitchen/breakfast room (plus utility) are well equipped with an extensive range of storage units, whilst integrated appliances ensure a streamlined look. Having space for relaxed dining and open access through to the cosy family room with vaulted ceiling, exposed timbers and inglenook style fireplace, this area of the home is perfect for the family to gather and relax. The galleried landing leads to all five bedrooms and family bath/shower room, the principal bedroom with a range of fitted furniture and spacious five piece en-suite including roll top bath and walk-in shower, providing both luxury and comfort. Established gardens with a variety of mature trees and shrubs are set to both the front and rear of the property, with the block paved carriage driveway providing ample parking in addition to the double garage with twin electric doors and versatile room plus WC above. EPC Rating: D.
