General Description

This delightful property certainly has much to offer. It is positioned comfortably on the ground floor of a block of three similar properties and has a third share of freehold with low service charges, a long lease and no ground rent. It is beautifully presented throughout and offers very comfortable living with additional living space in the form of a delightful conservatory to the rear which doubles up as an occasional bedroom for guests. There is a contemporary theme throughout with a subtle blend of grey and white decor. The shower room can easily be converted back to its original form with a bath. Very generous off road parking for a number of cars and a single garage. This property has the feel of a house as the accommodation is of generous proportion and the outstanding feature is the delightful south facing rear garden.
