DESCRIPTION.

The home is entered through the front porch, with plenty of room for coat and boot storage. From the entrance hall you have access through to the generous living room, with its ample space and traditional charm. On the other side of the hall, there is the eat-in kitchen which provides a homely atmosphere, ideal for relaxed dining. A separate utility room adds practicality to the layout, ensuring modern convenience without compromising on charm. It also houses a downstairs WC. A small rear hall has further under stairs storage and leads out to the rear garden.

Upstairs, the cottage offers two well-proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom, all waiting to be reimagined to suit contemporary tastes. There is also a useful study area on the landing.

With modernisation required, this delightful property presents an exciting opportunity to restore and enhance its period features while tailoring it to your personal style. Surrounded by countryside walks, local amenities, and the community spirit of Rode, this is a rare chance to acquire a home with both heritage and potential.

OUTSIDE

To the rear, a small yet private terrace provides an intimate outdoor space for morning coffee or evening relaxation. To the front of the property is a large, landscaped garden, providing complete privacy from the road and offering the keen gardener plenty of scope to add their own stamp.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Electric heating. Mains electricity, water and drainage connected. No gas connected.

AGENTS NOTE

We have been advised that there is spray foam insulation to the underside of the roof felt.

LOCATION

Rode is one of the area's most popular and sought-after villages, with a green at its centre. It is within commuting distance of both Bath and Bristol and offers easy access to the adjoining towns of Frome, Bradford on Avon and Trowbridge, while Westbury has a regular fast connection to London Paddington. Village amenities include pubs, a very popular primary school, post office/general store with fantastic café, village hall and playing fields.

Private schools are to be found in Bath and Warminster.
