The World Heritage City of Bath is approximately 12 miles distant and provides a full range of amenities with excellent shopping facilities, The Theatre Royal, Thermae Bath, cinema, numerous restaurants, many schools and a mainline railway station providing direct access to London Paddington.

The M4 motorway is also within easy access with junctions 17 and 18 both approximately 17 miles away.

Description

25 Avenue Road is a beautifully restored Victorian semi-detached home that seamlessly blends period charm with modern luxury. Extensively refurbished to the highest standard, the property retains a wealth of original features while incorporating contemporary upgrades, including full replumbing, stylishly refitted bathrooms, and an exceptional open-plan kitchen/dining/family room. Every detail has been carefully considered, resulting in an elegant and characterful home.

Upon arrival, a striking ornate tiled pathway leads to a bespoke, handmade front door with leaded glazing and a fanlight above. Stepping inside, the large welcoming entrance hall showcases an attractive spindled staircase, setting the tone for the home's refined interiors.

The sitting room, with its bay window and feature fireplace housing a wood-burning stove, offers a charming retreat, while the expansive open-plan living/kitchen area at the rear provides a superb social hub, opening directly onto the south west facing garden. A cosy snug and a convenient cloakroom complete the ground floor.

The first floor boasts three well-proportioned bedrooms, two of which feature original cast iron fireplaces, alongside a stylish shower room that blends modern fittings with traditional elegance. The second floor provides two further generous double bedrooms with eaves storage and a beautiful recently installed bathroom. Pure wool looped carpet consistent across all bedrooms, 1st floor landing, stairs to the second floor and landing

Externally, southwest-facing garden is a private retreat, offering two raised deck areas ideal for relaxation or alfresco dining and entertaining, along with a level lawn and framed by mature planting.
