Property Summary

"It was impossible not to have a smile on my face as I walked through this home. It is absolutely brimming with character". - Matthew, Gilbert, Branch Manager.

Proudly presenting to the market this medieval cottage. Believed to date back to the 15th century, this house was once a Wealden Hall house. This wonderful example of a Tudor home will leave you in awe as you discover each and every room. Bursting with character with exposed beams, brickwork, stone and timber floors and multiple fireplaces.

This striking period home is located in the middle of Leeds village, which boasts a primary school, public house, village hall and the popular Leeds Castle. There is also great access to the M20 and main bus route to Maidstone town centre. Headcorn and Bearsted are located nearby that both a wider range of amenities and offer a direct line to London.

This period cottage comprises to the ground floor of an entrance hall, well proportioned lounge with large inglenook fireplace, dining room with a fireplace, kitchen and WC. To the first floor there is a master bedroom boasting an ensuite and dressing room. There is also a second bedroom upstairs throughout this floor there are wonderful exposed beams including a statement crown post to admire.

Externally there are both front and rear gardens. To the rear the garden is well stocked and beautifully presented. There is also a log store, shed and brick built workshop. There is also access to the driveway at the rear.

Added to this there is the additional benefit of gas central heating, mains drainage and secondary glazed windows.

This home is quite a breath taking piece of history and really needs to be viewed to appreciate everything on offer.
