

A successful and well-established kennels and cattery business with an excellent range of accommodation buildings and main house situated on the periphery of the village of Tycroes, Carmarthenshire, within 3.5 miles of the M4 at Junction 49 (Pont Abraham).

Overview

An excellent opportunity to acquire a well-maintained 10.26 acre (approx.) smallholding set in a private, yet convenient location, with the added benefit of a successful turn-key dog kennels and cattery business generating strong and consistent monthly revenues, providing reliable income potential, with scope to further expand the business and diversify.

Gelli Farm Kennels and Cattery was established over 40 years ago and has grown and developed since the current owners took over the business some 4 years ago. The business enjoys a loyal client base and an enviable reputation for high standards of care, whilst being set in a pleasant accessible rural location, providing both a comfortable home and a successful business with scope for further growth.

The vendors are now looking to sell due to a changes in lifestyle and offers an excellent opportunity for a new incomer to take over the business to continue its success and strong reputation.

Situation

Gelli lies in a semi-rural setting on the periphery of the village of Tycroes, Carmarthenshire, with commanding views over the surrounding countryside and Betws mountain. The village of Tycroes offers a range of local amenities and services to include primary school, Post Office, convenience store, florist, takeaway outlets, medical centre, pharmacy and regular bus services.

The town of Ammanford lies 2 miles to the east providing a further comprehensive range of services and national retailers plus a train station on the Heart of Wales line. The M4 at Junction 49 can be reached within 3.5 miles to the south, providing excellent road links along the M4 corridor to Swansea within 15 miles (25 minutes) and the capital city of Cardiff within approx. 55 miles (1 hour).
