The Property

An attractive covered veranda set to the front of the property provides access to the entrance leading into a welcoming reception hall with stairs up to the first floor accommodation. Two reception rooms are set either side of the hall, both with lovely open aspects to the front overlooking the forest and benefiting from large expanses of glazing to maximise the views and light. The sitting room offers a fireplace and stripped wood flooring leading into the bay window whilst the dining room offers dual aspects and a side door.

A traditional breakfast room with the benefit of a large walk in pantry to one side, leads in turn into a conventional kitchen set to the rear. The kitchen offers a range of units with complimentary worksurfaces and integrated appliances including a gas hob with built under electric single oven. There is space and plumbing for additional appliances. The kitchen provides potential to extend and reconfigure STP to suit individual requirements. An external door leads to the side garden, garage and parking.

The first floor landing provides access to all four bedrooms served by the family bathroom with separate WC and benefit from elevated views across the forest. Two double bedrooms set at the front have superb views across the open forest and benefit from built in clothes storage. Two further good sized rooms are set to the rear with views across the gardens.

This leafy village on the southern edge of the New Forest has everything you could want for family life in the Forest

The Local Area

Brockenhurst is the largest village in the New Forest, boasting a thriving and lively community with all the necessary essentials of a proper working village, including a butcher, bakery, greengrocer, cafes and tea houses, plus services such as a doctor, dentist and post office. In addition, the village boasts an 18 hole championship golf course, a luxurious spa and a number of highly regarded hotels including the Balmer Lawn, the Pig and Careys Manor, all of which offer fine dining restaurants.

In Brockenhurst the New Forest is all around you and wild ponies, deer and cows roam at will. The North and South Weirs streams join and as one flow through Brockenhurst. In Brookley Road in the warmer months of the year the stream flows across the road, commonly referred to as The Splash.

It is Brockenhurst's mainline station (service into London Waterloo approximately 90 minutes) that turns the dream of a country idyll into reality for those working up in London and makes Brockenhurst village a property hot spot.
