This former Weavers Cottage has a rich history, believed to date back to the late 19th Century settled within the village of Kingswood and offered for sale with no onward chain. To the front a small courtyard garden, enclosed by a brick wall, is accessed via a few steps and leads you into the three-bedroom property. The lounge offers a welcoming atmosphere with the characterful wood burner with natural lighting gathering from a double-glazed window. Stone flooring leads into the well-proportioned dining area. The property has been extended twice under the current ownership incorporating a galley kitchen with ample storage cupboards, with shelves built into a former window and offers a pleasant outlook onto the rear garden whilst washing the dishes. To the left, you encounter a downstairs wet room and utility space housing the gas boiler. The first floor comprises one double bedroom and two single with one room boasting built-in storage. The family bathroom offers a bath with an overhead electric shower, perfect for enjoying a relaxing soak after the events of the day! A mature cottage garden occupies the rear mainly comprising of lawn, perfect for children to play. A patio seating area is situated towards the front of the garden is the perfect place to enjoy a morning brew with an interesting read. Accompanying the property a driveway provides off-street parking. The property is positioned within walking distance of the local shop, a community-owned public house, a good primary school and the reputable Katharine Lady Berkeley's Secondary School. In summary, this quirky, unique and individual cottage awaits a new owner to provide a personal touch to a treasured family home.
