Description

Situated close to Stroud Town Centre, this well-presented Grade II listed Cotswold stone home offers characterful accommodation arranged over three floors. The charming terraced cottage is in good condition and benefits from well-proportioned rooms throughout. Entering into the sitting room/dining room, which features an attractive inglenook fireplace with an enclosed wood-burner, front-aspect views and useful storage and access through to the kitchen. The modern kitchen is fitted with a range of wall and base units, complemented by solid oak worktops and integrated appliances. A cloakroom is conveniently located off the kitchen. Stairs from the sitting room lead to the first floor, where there is a good-sized bedroom and a family bathroom. Further stairs rise to the top floor, which offers an additional bedroom with exposed beams and plenty of character.

Outside

To the front of the property there is a lawned garden with well-stocked borders. The rear garden is laid with sandstone slabs and includes a storage area housing the boiler. Planted borders and rear access complete the rear garden.
