General -

Since acquiring the property in 2019, the current vendors have invested significantly on a complete renovation programme that includes new kitchen, bathrooms, first class orangery, plumbing, landscaping and much more. Originally dating back to the 1850's, there are a wealth of character features that have been retained throughout.

A particular feature of the property is its attractive tree-lined drive leading down to the property and opening up with magnificent views over the Rheidol Valley.

The land extends to some 15 acres of sloping pasture land, being fully stock proof fenced.

These properties don't come around often!
