Charming Three-Bedroom Detached Period Home in a Peaceful Cul-de-Sac

Situated in a quiet cul-de-sac leading on to Parkfield Open Space and just moments from Potters Bar High Street, this delightful three-bedroom detached period home seamlessly blends classic character with contemporary living. Presented in excellent decorative order, the property showcases a harmonious mix of period features and modern finishes. The versatile ground floor offers three generous reception areas, including a bright front lounge with a cast-iron fireplace, a stylish open-plan kitchen/dining room with granite worktops, and a third reception room with French doors opening onto the garden — perfect for family living and entertaining. Upstairs, you'll find three bedrooms and a sleek, contemporary shower room.

Outside, the home benefits from a mature, south-facing private rear garden, complete with a soundproofed garden studio with acoustic windows — ideal for working from home or creative pursuits. Additional features include off-street parking to the side with an electric car charging point and a half garage for storage.
