The nearby village of Gorley has a popular farm shop, whilst the old market town of Ringwood is 3 miles to the south and offers a choice of supermarkets, coffee shops and eateries. The old cattle market in Ringwood has been transformed into a stylish shopping quarter with names such as The White Company, Hobbs, Joules, Waitrose, Waterstones and has a programme of events that includes live music and farmers markets. The adjacent high street has retained its character, with a traditional weekly market and a selection of independents, an artisan bakery, and a variety of eateries such as Framptons, Prezzo's and Lovitaly. Families are attracted to the area by the sense of community, rural lifestyles, superb infant and junior schools, and highly regarded secondary school. For the commuter, the cities of Salisbury and Southampton are easily reached via the A338 and the A31 and London is only 2 hours distant, via the M3. The larger shopping towns of Bournemouth (10 miles south) and Southampton (20 miles east), both with their airports are easily accessible.
