The accommodation comprises of a large, triple aspect living room with feature inglenook style fireplace, a formal dining room, study, kitchen, utility and cloakroom to the ground floor, with four double bedrooms and two bathrooms to the first floor. One of the bathrooms forms the en-suite to the principle bedroom and there is a further return staircase which leads to the second floor loft room, which has been formally converted into a very useful open plan space approaching 40ft in length. The home further benefits from gas fired heating, as well as double glazing, and is being offered without a forward chain.

Gardens and Grounds

The front garden is laid to a tarmacadam driveway, which is suited to several vehicles, and in turn leads to the detached double garage with an up and over style door. The garage benefits from power and light as well as storage space in the eaves above. The garden extends around both sides of the house and leads to the rear garden, which is primarily laid to lawn. The boundary is clearly denoted by mixed hedging and views extend out across the adjoining farmland.
