

Nestled in the sought-after area of The Myrke in Datchet, this beautifully presented three-bedroom Victorian semi-detached property effortlessly blends period character with comfortable modern living. With easy access to Eton Playing Fields, Herschel Park, and Upton Park, this property is ideal for those who enjoy outdoor spaces while still benefiting from excellent transport links and local amenities.

Step inside to find a welcoming living/dining room, ideal for cosy evenings, alongside a well-appointed kitchen/breakfast room – perfect for both family meals and entertaining guests.

Upstairs, the home offers three generously sized bedrooms and a stylish family bathroom, all finished in keeping with the property's character.

To the rear, a delightful enclosed garden awaits, featuring a wide paved patio area that leads onto a level lawn – a perfect space for children to play or for enjoying the outdoors in privacy.

Located just a short distance from local amenities, excellent schools, and transport links, this home is ideal for families or professionals seeking village charm with convenient connections.
