Situation

The village of Etchinghill nestles in an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty with easy access to the North Downs Way and other beautiful walks. It has a semi-rural feel with lush countryside all around, yet is under 4 miles from the coast. At the centre is a pub/restaurant and a short stroll will bring you to Etchinghill Golf Club. A further 3 golf courses are all within 5 miles. A number of clubs and societies make good use of the village hall and there are good bus links to Canterbury and Folkestone. A mile away is Lyminge village offering a Post Office & convenience shop, hairdressers, two Doctors surgeries, chemist and Primary School.

The nearby coastal town of Folkestone has two mainline railway stations with High-Speed services to London in under an hour. The town is home to 'The Creative Quarter', a thriving collection of artists' studios and creative businesses, and the recently restored Harbour Arm which has become a food, drink and entertainment destination for the town and its visitors.

Just three miles away is the Cinque Port of Hythe which has a bustling centre brimming with independent shops, restaurants and coffee shops where you can sit back and watch the world go by. Set between the beaches and the town is the Royal Military Canal which runs to the historic town of Rye. Most of the popular supermarkets are nearby and Hythe itself offers Waitrose, Sainsbury's and Aldi. The M20 motorway and Eurotunnel are just two miles away.
